the Financial Times that Nintendo is planning to hold a Nintendo Direct presentation at E3 this year. According to Iwata, Nintendo is planning to announce several new titles for the Wii U and 3DS in the presentation. Nintendo's last presentation for the conference, which was held last year, focused on the new Nintendo 2DS, the 3DS, and more than an hour of footage of Mario Kart 8. "My preference is to have something more substantial than a selection of images," he told the FT. "There will also be something for the Wii U in our presentation this year."
