Screenshots: A: This is not the source code for C&C games. There are a couple of possible explanations why you found this code there: First you might have seen it yourself (?) on one of the old C&C games where they are still working on it. This would be the easiest explanation, the person who posted it is not a developer. Otherwise it is possible that this site is doing something to fake google searches that looks like a search for the source code. I could see this happening if your local google search bar is really smart and does not restrict you to search results that are only a few clicks away from the actual search button of your browser. This is generally frowned upon because it is usually not legit and may block normal search results from google. So it's possible that this site is trying to trick you into doing searches that leads to this kind of article. If that is the case, I would recommend to block it and consider it a security risk as this is not legitimate. But if you really want to see the source code, that can be found here: If you want to decode it, you may want to look for the image decoder in the right window as the encoded value starts with an image id. Also available in... Product Description 1. Introduction 1.1.
