It is a single conductor cable that is fully insulated and has a conductivity of 4,200 MA/M. The PLX300PT is designed to provide signal conductivity for the most demanding applications. This cable offers signal flexibility, high resistance to the flow of ground induced noise, and superior electrical performance. The 1/2" connectors feature a spring-loaded, one-way locking design. This design ensures a secure connection, while remaining solid, low resistance, and free from corrosion. Please Note: This is a special order piece. As an option, we offer a 1:1 input-to-output conversion kit that includes a 33-foot cord and our universal 50-foot extension cable, both available for immediate delivery.From June 1, 2018, smoking in all public and work places will be banned. The anti-smoking law “ban on smoking in places of public or work”, adopted in March 2018, is effective from June 1, 2018, in Japan. The law was approved by the Diet in March 2018, however, the ban would not come into force until the amendments are passed in 2019, according to the Health Ministry. Beginning June 1, 2018, the ban will be enforced in restaurants, bars, cafes, hair salons 1cb139a0ed
