Overview The one part that the Oculus Rift S didn't compromise on was the sensor's internal tracking system. Oculus is proud to announce that it hasn't compromised it this year either. With a modern OLED panel, you get an even lower latency, a 1080p resolution and each of the latest tracking enhancements for the Rift S. This year's changes are good for Rift owners as well, because every Rift owner gets the new tracking system, as well as improvements in other areas too.
