I am trying to create a boot disk for a Safetech PC using an UBCD to load the ISOs, but failed to run WinTech (BartPE) CD without Blue Screening when loading WindowsPE... Safetech Boot Cd Iso THE SAFETECH BOOT DISK IS HERE! [PLEASE READ, is a great Windows recovery tool. BartPE? can i boot safetech iso without UBCD? I can't find out how to create the boot file for the ISO. In addition, if anyone is familiar with the UBCD, I need you to help me.. Safetech Boot Disk Iso [url] WINTech IS THE BEST CD FOR ME. I NEED TO LOAD SAFETECH BOOT CD WITH ISO FILE. I HAVE V1.0 WINTech, I'm using win 8.1 pro. i want to run safetech cd with iso file that is safetech boot cd. i can't find a way how to do that. i installed it as adma1. I need to run it as a ISO file. I tried my cd but when i start it, i can't see any boot screen. it is just "safetech" screen. FAQs AND OTHER VIA BOOKS (DISCUSSION) My current install has UBCD, and is currently formatted with a 60GB vista disk. I have been in the process of creating an ISO with several components, including Windows Recovery Essentials, System Tools, and several drivers. I have the UBCD already. Manually I copied several files to the system drive and then compressed the entire contents to an ISO file. I then renamed the ISO file with a UBCD extension and tried to boot from it. I have to admit, that it worked pretty well. I was able to load the boot image, and I saw the as a rescue disk, I am using it to get a clean and secure copy of my system. Manually I copied several files to the system drive and then compressed the entire contents to an ISO file. I then renamed the ISO file with a UBCD extension and tried to boot from it.
