That means the Slime isn't working and it's got to be really bad. I know I haven't seen alot of slimes lately, so I'd have to think something was wrong with my setup. But you should still do the inoculation since I don't think there's any harm in going ahead and doing it. The slimes will come back one day. okay, i saw you did the inoculation the other day. i was going to do it with some bugs on the shrooms i got. i'm just not sure if i want to go that route. i was just about ready to start inoculating a bunch of them. i was kind of discouraged from doing the slime though because of the video you posted. i didn't see a lot of bubbling when i made the spawn. i must have done something wrong. i am working on my hot water method at home, it 648931e174
